MEMORANDUM FOR: Mr. George G. Carey
Assistant Director for Operations

SUBJECT : Whereabouts of Key World Leaders

1. The White House has recently levied a requirement on OCI to be kept apprised daily of the locations of key world leaders in order that the White House International Situation Room can maintain current all-source postings on their present and projected activities.

2. An essential source for such information is FBIS. I would appreciate it if FBIS could put on the ticker to the Watch Office each day--perhaps around 1500--a brief resume of information relating to the whereabouts of these figures.

3. The following world leaders are those which are the subjects of our reports to the White House:

Albania -- Hoxha and Shehu

Bulgaria -- Zhivkov and Yugov

Communist China -- Mao, Liu, Chou, and Chen I.

Cuba -- Fidel Castro and Guevara

Czechoslovakia -- Novotny and Siroky

Dominican Republic -- "Ramfis" Trujillo

East Germany -- Ulbricht

Hungary -- Kadar and Maennich

India -- Nehru

Indonesia -- Sukarno

Iran -- the Shah

Mongolia -- Tsedenbal

North Korea -- Kim Il-sung

North Vietnam -- Ho, Pham Van-dong, and Ung Van-kien

Poland -- Gomulka, Cyrankiewicz, and Napacki

Rumania -- Gheorghiu-Dej and Maurer

UAR -- Nasir

USSR -- Khrushchev, Kozlov, Kosygin, Mikoyan,
Malinovsky, and Gromyko

4. The special daily summary we would like to begin receiving from FBID need not be extensive. We are primarily concerned with the date of identification, location of the official, unusual circumstances relating to the official, and significant projected activity (such as travel abroad). We would also appreciate a special note in the event that FBID considers any of the above leaders to have been out of the public eye for a significant length of time.
